

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Lieutenant Colonel Kevin K. Callies's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize these patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Lieutenant Colonel Callies devoted over 35 years of his life to the service of this state and country as the Logistics Group Commander, the first Commander of the 114th Fighter Wing's Comptroller Flight, and many state activations as well as deployments to the Carribean and Central America; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

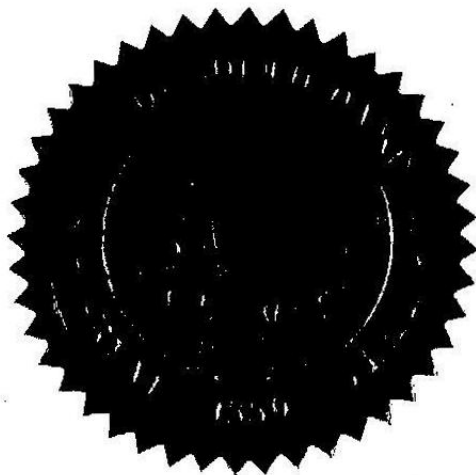

Whereas, Lieutenant Colonel Callies continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Lieutenant Colonel Kevin K. Callies for over 35 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 28, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard
